

Gordon Doughart Memorial Award

The Gordon Doughart Memorial Award was established by his parents, Kathryn and George Doughart, to empower the celebration of the legacy of their son, Gordon Doughart, of Sydney, NS who passed away in 2014 after a courageous battle with cancer. Gordon was a talented Red Seal chef with a great sense of humour. His greatest joy was spending time with his beloved family and friends. In addition to his dedication to his family and his solid work ethic, Gordon will be remembered for the tireless work he did to raise awareness of issues related to funding of medication for cancer patients in Nova Scotia.

The Award:

The successful applicant will receive $500 applied to his/her student account at Holland College when attendance has been confirmed.
