- Two letters of reference supporting why you should be considered for the Joe Spriet Scholarship
- A copy of your letter of acceptance from a recognized post-secondary institution

Please Note: Below are suggested guidelines for referees to consider when preparing letters of reference for you. In no way are they intended to limit the points that referees may wish to address.

- Clearly explain your role and how you know the student
- Talk about the student's character (i.e.- what kind of person are they)
- Include information about the student's potential in his/her chosen field of study
- Use examples of the student's achievements to demonstrate why they deserve this scholarship
- Address specific situations in which the student excelled
- Keep the letter no longer than one page (500 words)
