

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release:

February 7, 2020

Community Foundation of PEI now accepting scholarship and grant applications for 2020

Applications are now being accepted at the Community Foundation of Prince Edward Island (CFPEI) for more than thirty community granting funds and scholarships. This year, the Foundation will be awarding close to $400,000 to deserving Island students and organizations!

Scholarships representing a wide range of criteria are open to students graduating from Island high schools this year as well as some which are open to students presently studying at a post-secondary institution.

Grants addressing a wide range of causes that benefit Island communities are also available to PEI-based, non-profit organizations with registered charitable status.

For 2020, the CFPEI application process has changed. All applications will now ONLY be accepted online at our new scholarship and granting portal. All grants and scholarships can be found on the application portal or our website. Please visit our website www.cfpei.ca for more information or to apply. Applications will remain open effective immediately through May 1st, 2020.

Now in its 27th year, CFPEI currently manages over 100 individual funds with a combined value of close to $13 million dollars and distributes funds to all corners of the community in arts and culture, education, health, social services and the environment. CFPEI works with its donors to realize their philanthropic goals, matching their interests with the needs of the community.
